	Thursday	Drive to Chitake Campsite. Break camp after breakfast and drive up to beautiful Chitake Springs, where the river bed couldn't be better laid out for photographing the massive herds of buffalo coming down to drink and the bushes turn into lions in front of your eyes.	Chitake Exclusive campsite, Chitake Springs	Wild Camping	Bush Catering Brunch & Dinner	SUBJ. AVAIL
	Friday	Explore Chitake (use 130l water stored on trailer). N.B. no walking at Chitake (due to afore-mentioned tendency of bushes to unexpectedly turn into lions), rather sit quietly in your chair under the fig tree at the spring and wait for animals to come to the water below, or go view the Baobab forest), look for broken pottery shards on the ground, please do not remove these out of respect, they are Shona burial pots. Buffalo herds can arrive to drink at any time at the spring, their arrival heralded by a cloud of dust on the horizon. N.B. Lions are most active at night, do not stray from camp at night. No driving after dark and no camping at the fig tree (please, please, please abide by the Mana/Chitake code of conduct provided). Most action will happen early morning or at dusk so get up early and wait at the water till sundown. 5mins after the sun sets, if you sit quietly at the fig tree, thousands of sand grouse will whizz in centimeters above your head as they come in to drink from the spring. It is a quite surreal experience how they coordinate their arrival time. Within 15 mins they are done and will all be gone.	Chitake Exclusive campsite, Chitake Springs	Wild Camping	Bush Catering Brunch & Dinner	SUBJ. AVAIL
	Saturday	Drive to Harare (return 4x4). Break camp and drive to Harare. You must depart <08:30 so as to avoid driving in the	N/A	N/A	N/A N.B. Cooling large volumes of drinks is always a challenge. The driver will manage refrigeration to the best of their ability but supply of cold drinks will be limited.
